

The Weekend Breaker

You deserve it!!!

Action Pack

what you get :

Get ready to tick off an epic bucket list experience. Your next adventure is ready and waiting, and it could well be your biggest one yet.

Jumping from an aircraft at 3,000 feet, you'll freefall through the skies, taking in the sights below and feeling the rush of the open air before releasing your parachute. Once it's open, you'll be able to control your direction and speed, with skills you've learnt from your training, before a gentle landing.

It might be one of the most challenging sports ever invented, but you'll be supervised by the best in the business, who'll ensure you undergo rigorous ground training. So take a breath, steel your nerves and get ready for that all-important jump.
